5 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
6 EASTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON

7 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

8 Plaintiff,

9 v.

10 DANIEL NUNEZ-MOJICA,

11 Defendant.

NO: 2:19-CR-0168-TOR

PROTECTIVE ORDER

12
13 BEFORE THE COURT is the United States' Motion for Protective Order
14 Regulating Disclosure of Discovery and Sensitive Information. ECF No. 13. The 15 Court has reviewed the record and files herein, and is fully informed. For good
16 cause shown, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

17 1. The United States' Motion for Protective Order Regulating Disclosure of 18 Discovery and Sensitive Information, ECF No. 13, is GRANTED.

1           2. The United States is authorized to disclose the discovery and confidential
2 materials (hereinafter “discovery”) in its possession pursuant to the discovery
3 obligations imposed by this Court.

4           3. Counsel for the Defendant shall hold the discovery materials in 5 confidence, disclosing this information to his or her client, office staff,
6 investigators, and/or witnesses (including any experts) only to the extent he or she
7 believes is necessary to assist in the defense of this matter.

8           4. Counsel for the Defendant shall advise any person to whom the discovery
9 materials are disclosed that the information must be held in confidence and the 10 recipient may not further disclose or disseminate the information without further
11 order of the Court.

12           5. Discovery in this matter will be made available to defense counsel via 13 access to a case file on USA File Exchange or through a diskette containing a copy
14 of the discovery. If necessary for review of discovery with his or her client,
15 counsel for the Defendant may download the discovery and duplicate only once.
16 Discovery materials may not be left in the possession of the Defendant. In order to 17 provide discovery to a necessary third-party vendor, consultant, and/or anticipated
18 fact or expert witness, defense counsel may duplicate the discovery only once. No
19 other copies shall be made, by defense counsel or the Defendant, without prior 20 approval from this Court.

1           6. Government personnel and counsel for the Defendant shall promptly
2 report to the Court any known violations of this Order.

3           The District Court Clerk is hereby directed to enter this Order and provide 4 copies to counsel.

5           DATED November 21, 2019.
